

Jacqueline Sinclar

My Mom

My Mom is the person who made me into this world she's nice and has should me how to be a man and she's always expected great thing from me

How she influences me

She help me with life and goals I put for myself she give me talks which help me in life and she works everyday to provide for me no matter what y

Where they live

They live with me and the people that influence me mom is her mom which also influences me to do my best so she can see me become something great in this big world

Why

She tell me everyday that if I work hard I can reach great things that's why everyday I get up and try my hardest no matter what I'm school or outside of school